

ARTS & CULTURE

BEST IN SHOW

Surreal films, fine antiquities, 3D video installations and melancholy photography will broaden your mind over the coming months.

WORDS BY TONY MARGHERITA

- 1. PERTH: EYE FOR A KING
 Sculptures of great power and influence have always inspired Kingpin's choice of art, so how did they do it before the age of garage sports cars and hand-beaten leathers? With the blood, sweat and tears of countless artists and craftsmen, primarily European, Kingpin's collection also draws the finest and most diverse talents of the region, from old masters and classical sculpture and tapestry to modern and contemporary art. September 14th, 10am to 5pm, www.royal.wa.gov.au

- 2. BRISBANE: EYES WIDE SHUT
 English, Australian, Italian, Indian, the names in the language of a series of five paintings at Brisbane's Gallery of Modern Art and Brisbane's Art Gallery, the exhibition 'Surrealism: The Power of Dreams' by the Australian Contemporary Art Centre (ACAC) presents a collection of paintings, drawings and prints by Australian, British, Italian, Indian, and other artists. The exhibition is a celebration of the power of dreams, the subconscious, and the surreal. It features works by artists such as Salvador Dalí, Paul Gauguin, and others. The exhibition is on until 10th October, 10am to 5pm, www.acac.com.au

- 3. MELBOURNE: HOUSE MUSIC
 The House Music exhibition is a celebration of the power of music, the subconscious, and the surreal. It features works by artists such as Salvador Dalí, Paul Gauguin, and others. The exhibition is on until 10th October, 10am to 5pm, www.acac.com.au

- 4. SYDNEY: CROSS PURPOSES
 The Cross Purposes exhibition is a celebration of the power of music, the subconscious, and the surreal. It features works by artists such as Salvador Dalí, Paul Gauguin, and others. The exhibition is on until 10th October, 10am to 5pm, www.acac.com.au

